Cha Bei is a tea cup.

We believe inside every tea cup there is a unique story. Our daily infusions transport us to far-off places invoking memories of past travels, inspiring us to venture off and discover new places or embrace new experiences, while providing the perfect medium for conversation and community.

Cha Bei is a space of travel, food, art and design inspiration for you to meet, relax, share and infuse your own stories and ideas among great company, or to create your own quiet storm in a tea cup.

“Like people, all tea comes from the same plant – they are just infused and expressed differently through cultures, flavors, colors...but all are beautiful.” ~ Joanna Lui
